Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1,2, 10, 11,16, 21, and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Burke et al. (4402251). Burke et al. discloses a system for electronically actuating a firearm (a weapon control system, see figure 6) with a target sensor (12, optical tracker) configured to determine a target offset angle, compute a point of aim offset angle (estimation,14) and a target sensor signal becoming coterminous (angular crosses zero, see abstract, figure 4, and col. 4, through lines 25-col.5) and a firing unit (gun fire control, 20) electrically coupled (30, firing command system, col. 4,first paragraph) to the target sensor unit (estimator, col.4, lines 45) to electrically ignite one or more axially loaded ammunition loads upon receiving the target sensor signal and a trigger signal ( col. 5, lines 49-51) with trigger means (trigger actuation, see claim 5). With respect to claim 10, the offset angle being based on motion (maneuvering, col. 1 lines 32-40), with flight velocity, target range (optical rangefinder 12,optical tracker where Tf and Tp are the target position- future and present) for a projectile. (see claim 6).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 3-9, 12-15, and 17-20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The patents Voles, Hawkes et al., De'ath, Shechter et al., and Mcfarland et al. are cited to show target sensor aiming devices.
